

Please do not loosen the standards by the proposed change in FCC standards regarding nudity/indecency/profanity/vulgarity, etc.

The standards should, if anything, be tightened to allow less filth to be filtered into our homes. To take this choice of exposure away from us as parents is harmful to our society.

Please do not allow the pressures of broadcasting companies to sway in a negative direction what is deemed appropriate